Nova Scotians have a strong and proud tradition of contributing to their communities, and they understand that our strength as a province depends on helping each other.

Therefore, the Skills and Learning Branch of the Nova Scotia Department of Education would like to formally recognize the valuable work of a volunteer involved in provincially-funded, community-based literacy programs.

The Department of Education Community Literacy Award provides you with the opportunity to nominate a person who has gone above and beyond the call of duty as a volunteer and who is deserving of recognition for his/her dedication to community-based literacy.

One provincial award will be presented.

When submitting a nomination, be sure to include a nomination form (included on the reverse of this brochure) plus two letters of support explaining how the candidate has met the criteria for this award.

Deadline for nominations is Friday, May 16, 2008
