Literacy networks in Nova Scotia have long recognized the crucial role played by volunteer tutors in supporting their Adult Learning Programs and their communities.

Therefore, the Skills and Learning Branch of the Nova Scotia Department of Labour and Workforce Development would like to formally recognize the valuable work of those volunteers involved in provincially funded, community-based literacy tutoring programs.

The Department of Labour and Workforce Development volunteer tutor award provides you with the opportunity to nominate a person who has gone above and beyond the call of duty as a volunteer tutor and who is deserving of recognition for his/her dedication to community-based literacy.

Awarded for the first time in 2007, this recognition of excellence will be dedicated to the memory of Patricia Helliwell. As a volunteer tutor and coordinator of the Hants Literacy Network Association for fourteen years, Patricia's indefatigable spirit, compassion and devotion to adult learners provided an enduring role model for all to emulate.

One provincial award will be presented.

When submitting a nomination, be sure to include a nomination form (included on the reverse of this brochure) plus two letters of support explaining how the candidate has met the criteria for this award.

To be nominated, the candidate should:

- ✓ be currently working as a volunteer tutor
- ✓ have been involved in community-based volunteer tutoring for at least 3 years
- ✓ continuously demonstrated caring, compassion, commitment, and sensitivity to the needs of adult learners.
